

Quality

We are the only organization with strategic, technological and operational relationships with the top-ranked U.S. teaching and research hospitals of The WorldCare Consortium®. With more than 20,000 specialists and sub-specialists who have access to over $4 billion dollars in annual biomedical research funding, The WorldCare Consortium® is unmatched in the depth and breadth of its medical expertise. Each member institution stands behind the medical second opinions (MSOs) they provide because they are confident in the expertise of their specialists.

Depth

Our ability to provide you with access to these teams of specialists at WorldCare Consortium® facilities is one of the many reasons why we stand apart. Because of the team's combined depth of knowledge, knowledge that an individual physician cannot possibly possess on their own, you can be confident every aspect of your case has been considered. This gives you the reassurance needed to make medical decisions with confidence. In addition to our relationship with The WorldCare Consortium®, we also have a larger network of the very best quality institutions and physicians worldwide.

Technology

Couple all of this with technology that enables us to send cases directly past the hospitals' firewalls and into their daily workflow, ensuring quick turnaround times. Plus, we have the ability to send cases to more than one institution simultaneously for multiple MSOs when necessary.

Experience

Simply put, we have been doing MSOs for longer than anyone else. And we are continually improving our process to provide excellent MSOs, superior customer service and flexibility; clearly setting us apart.
