

May 13, 2019

Contact: Tina Karas, Vice President of Marketing
P: 617.250.5142
E: tkaras@worldcare.com

WorldCare's Global Medical Director panelist at the SIIA's 2019 International Conference

BOSTON — With over a quarter of a century of experience providing virtual medical management services, including remote medical second opinion services, WorldCare's Global Medical Director will be a panelist at SIIA's 2019 International Conference taking place May 14 – 16 in Miami, Florida.

The event brings together insurance colleagues to promote global networking, the exchange of self-insurance and alternative risk strategies market knowledge, and sharing and exploring effective emerging global health management trends. WorldCare's Global Medical Director, Richard Heinzl, MD will be a panelist on the Global Telemedicine – The Past, Present and Future Part A: Making Telemedicine Work with International Plan Participant Educational Session at 10:30 a.m. on May 15.

"The advancement of medical knowledge is bringing remarkable new capabilities to healthcare – yet, at the same time costs are skyrocketing. Medical Second Opinions are more important than ever in helping achieve creative insurance solutions. WorldCare is excited to be part of such an essential meeting of leaders," shared Richard Heinzl, MD, Global Medical Director, WorldCare.

Other panelists joining Dr. Heinzl include Elliot Mondrow, CEO, Equatel Health; Robb Suchecki, VP, International Healthcare, Pan-American Life Insurance Group and Dr. Jonathan Wiesen, CEO and CMO, MediOrbis.

To learn more or to register for the conference, please visit www.siaa.org.

###

About WorldCare

WorldCare's mission is to improve healthcare outcomes of members worldwide by connecting our clients to the foremost medical experts at top-ranked U.S. hospitals of The WorldCare Consortium®. WorldCare fulfills its mission by using a unique disease management approach, which digitally recreates the experience of a patient walking into the leading medical institutions in the United States, providing the highest-touch coaching, virtual medical second opinions and other medical services available worldwide.